

Estimator

Energetic, self-motivated, client-oriented... Does this sound like you? If so, we have the perfect role – Renaissance Printing Inc., is currently looking for an Estimator to join its growing print plant operation in Pickering, Ontario.

In this role, you will be responsible for preparing printing quotes based on customer specifications, routine and complex, keeping in mind our manufacturing processes and the most efficient way to get the job done. You will be an integral part of the team, working together with sales, vendors and other departments to successfully complete projects on time and on budget.

You have a post-secondary education in business or print management or a minimum of two years' experience in a related administrative or customer service role. You have a knack for keeping things organized, thrive on meeting multiple deadlines and can operate well in a fast-paced environment. You have an eye for detail, can work well with numbers and have excellent computer skills. Knowledge of the printing industry is an asset but not required – we will teach you what you need to know.

As a Renaissance employee, you'll get to enjoy a competitive wage, progressive benefits and continuous learning opportunities. If you are a team player and looking for a great workplace environment, this is it. To get on board, send a cover letter and resumé to careers@renaissanceprinting.ca.

Renaissance Printing In. specializes in high-quality web printing for publishers and marketers.

Deadline to apply is September 19, 2018.
